Vote No on Amendment 4

Jefferson City politicians should not control the KC police department. Let the people of KCMO make decisions about public safety in their communities.

- Mandates that at least 25% of KC general revenue be spent on police, an increase from 20%.
- Gives authority for funding police departments to the legislature.
- Between 2012-2018, KCPD budget increased 24%, and violent crime rate increased 47% (KC Defender).
- Requires KC to spend an additional $38 million requiring budget cuts to other city services.
- KCPD is only police department in MO that is not governed by the locally elected government.
